
Form 3 of 8: Finance and Payments

Who fills this in: controller, bookkeeper, or CFO. Time: about 10 minutes. "I do not know" is a real answer.

Company: _____ Your name: _____ Date: _____

Why finance is in a security review: wire fraud and fake invoices are the most common expensive incident at companies your size. It is a finance control problem more than a technical one.

1. Who can send a payment or wire on the company's behalf?

2. Does a second person have to approve payments? Above what amount?

☐ Always ☐ Above $_____ ☐ No second approval

3. If a vendor emails asking to change their bank details, what happens?

4. Do you call back on a number you already have on file to verify that change?

☐ Always ☐ Sometimes ☐ No ☐ Not sure

5. Has anyone ever nearly paid, or actually paid, a fake invoice or a fraudulent request?

6. Can you export a list of every vendor paid in the last twelve months?

☐ Yes ☐ With effort ☐ No

7. Roughly how many vendors are on that list?

8. Do people buy software on personal or company credit cards without going through procurement?

☐ Often ☐ Sometimes ☐ Rarely ☐ Not sure

9. Do you carry cyber insurance? Carrier and renewal date?

Carrier: _____ Renewal: _____ ☐ No policy ☐ Not sure

10. Do you handle card payments directly, or does a processor handle them?

☐ Processor only ☐ We touch card data ☐ Not sure

11. Who has access to banking systems? Is MFA on those accounts?

Names: _____ MFA: ☐ Yes ☐ No ☐ Not sure

12. Who has access to payroll data?

Anything about payments or vendors that has felt risky to you?
